

PARENT APPRAISAL SERVICE FOR SCHOOLS

Does your school need a PASS?

Our new parent appraisal service for schools (PASS) gives schools the opportunity to appraise the credit histories of prospective parents before their child enters the school.

The service includes:

- Land Registry Information on homeowners
- CCJ checks
- Individual Insolvency checks
- Company director and financial company information
- Written reports for school files
- Annual updates offered

Use the information to plan your approach to the parents and cross-check information provided for pupils on a bursary.

A cost effective aid to school debt avoidance Available on a 'per pupil' or subscription basis

Our highly regarded School Fee Debt Recovery Service is there to assist bursars balance the recovery fees against the impact on the pupil, particularly at critical points during their education.

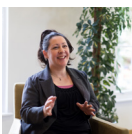

We understand that your primary goal is to provide a cohesive and nurturing environment for your pupils. Unfortunately, ensuring the steady flow of cash to fund that goal can prove an unwelcome distraction. We help limit that distraction and allow you to focus on your objectives by providing a straightforward fee recovery solution. The significant experience we have in the education sector, combined with our in depth knowledge of the legal process allows us to develop cost efficient strategies, tailored to suit your needs. Having worked closely with independent schools for over 30 years, we understand the importance of an effective fee recovery service that provides predictability and certainty regarding costs, particularly in these challenging times.
