

SUPPORTING VETS DURING AND AFTER COVID-19

With Covid-19 bringing financial, people and operational challenges like most of us have never seen before, the need to be responsive to change is now greater than ever.

Whether your practice is currently focusing on preserving cash, or you're making plans for the safe return of your team to work, we can help. We can advise on furlough and employment matters, accessing finance and government-backed loan schemes, health and safety, and property matters. We can also advise you and your team on personal issues such as estate planning and wills.
