

Harrison Clark Rickerbys – who we are

As an award-winning UK law firm, we provide a full range of legal services to clients at home and overseas.

We have been advising Dutch, Anglo-Dutch and Netherlands-based international businesses for many years, from start-ups and SMEs to multinationals, and our base in the Netherlands is one of our most active international hubs. Since 2021, legal director and commercial law specialist, Rachael King, has been located in the Randstad as HCR's representative to further strengthen our links in the Netherlands and provide on-the-ground support to our clients here.

HCR has more than 800 staff, including more than 150 partners, and have been awarded the Law Society's Lexcel quality mark in recognition of our compliance and client care standards. Clients value our honesty and our friendly approach: we partner with our clients and demonstrate our genuine commitment to them in all that we do.

Our roots go back to 1796 in Cheltenham, and our growth has been in response to client demand. We now have eleven UK locations, including London, Cambridge and Cardiff. This means we have connections and can get things done across the regions of England and Wales.

At the same time, our diverse network outside London means we can keep costs low.

We know that people are at the heart of every business. We value the personal relationships we make, and we know that business success is as much about having the right people as the right product or service.

A world of expertise

Our international service operates from five hubs across the world where our relationships with the people and institutions that might affect you are tried and tested. Our legal, commercial and government connections within the five hubs are extensive and deep – for example, Rachael King lives in The Hague, and we work with other individuals that we've personally known for decades. Unlike many UK law firms we can also carry out China legal advice work in house thanks to our team of Chinese qualified lawyers.

HCR is also able to make use of over 2,000 overseas lawyers in 30 different countries through our membership of Law Exchange International (LEI) which we founded in 1994. The network is complementary to HCR's five overseas hubs, and enables us to obtain reliable and cost-effective advice from lawyers we trust to help you run and grow your business, from Belgium to Brazil and from Turkey to Texas.
