

Early stage funding

Inger Anson – Inger is a highly recommended Corporate Partner in the Cambridge market with over 23 years' experience. Inger is known for her expertise in the early-stage funding arena and is the 'go to' lawyer for investee companies and investors alike. Inger has a strong track record acting with and for all types of businesses and individuals involved in early stage innovation and growth, advising in particular on all elements of investment and fundraising. Inger started working in the early-stage investment space in 2010 when angel investing first came to prominence and has a wealth of knowledge in this area having acted predominantly on these types of transactions in the past 12 years.

Monty works regularly with start-ups, scale-ups and founders, supporting on fundraising rounds, employee share option schemes and corporate governance matters. Monty has experience in the innovation sector, helping innovators in a variety of sectors achieve success.

How we can help:

- For clients with SEIS/EIS investors, take advice before implementing any constitutional changes
- Keep up to date records in one 'easy to find place'
- Keep an up to date 'fully diluted' cap table.
