Costs

Any costs quoted here are for the main applicant only (not dependents who are covered separately) and do not include the following disbursements, which are costs related to your matter but which are payable to third parties:

- any Home Office premium service fees;
- any other fees related to the application, such as for the appointment to provide your biometrics information, translation
- where the Home Office refuses your application, advice and assistance in relation to any potential appeal.

Government fees stated include the visa fee and, where applicable, the immigration health surcharge.

Whilst we do not pay the disbursements on your behalf, we can assist to manage the payment process with you to ensure it runs smoothly.

Fixed fee/hourly rate

When an hourly rate is charged, the exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case, such as:

- the amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider;
- which language(s) you speak; and
- whether you are applying with other dependants.

Our services

The work involved in any application will normally include:

- discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you (1-2 hours);
- giving you advice about the requirements of the particular category in which you wish to apply, and whether you meet the criteria (1-2 hours);
- if you do not fulfil certain criteria, advising whether this can be overcome and how (1-2 hours);
- considering the supporting evidence you have provided (5-15 hours<sup>3</sup>);
- where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements from any witnesses (5-8 hours);
- preparing and agreeing the draft application with you and submitting it on your behalf (3-4 hours);
- if the Home Office ask you to attend an interview, we will give you clear advice at the appropriate time (2-4 hours); and
- giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take (1-2 hours).

<sup>3</sup>The number of hours depends on the number of documents, whether they need to be translated, whether anything is missing and how long it will take to obtain the missing documents.
